ON THE JOB!

The Diaper Pin Kid

I.

I am the Diaper Pin Kid,
I have done what I did.
Cleaned up the Old West,
So now it is the best,
I shot off it's Lid!

II.

They thought that they were tough
Never figured I was so rough.
Though not two years old,
I was brave and bold,
They yelled they had enough!

III.

I rode on my rocking horse,
Pinto knew I was the boss,
Over the mountains and river,
We did not shiver,
And we gathered no moss.

IV.

We came to Bolo City,
Hard without any pity,
The Sheriff was in Boot Hill,
They were out for a big kill,
But I was smart and witty.

V.

I came as a big surprise,
They couldn't believe their eyes,
For I was ready to bite,
The first who wanted to fight,
And cut him down to my size.

VI.

One went for his six shooter,
Acting like a free booter,
I got him in the eye,
So he started to cry,
He was worse than a looter.

VII.

Then one grabbed his rifle,
With him I would not trifle,
I stuck him with a big pin,
Underneath his very fat chin,
His cried he could not stifle.

VIII.

I will clean up this bad place,
Until there isn't a trace,
To show it once was bad.
I will do it by Gad!
For this town is a disgrace.

IX.

On all their bended knees,
I listened to their pleas,
They would all be good boys,
And buy me some new toys,
And a book with A, B, C's.

X.

Now all is quiet and nice,
Maybe you got some advice,
On how to keep the law,
Prevent a gun war,
I will do it for half price!

R. J. Simpson
